Rural Development Financial Assistance: Programs for you and your Community

May 9, 2006
10:00 AM to 12 Noon
IIsley Library 75 Main Street
Middlebury, VT

Programs that address affordable workforce housing, infrastructure needs, business development and much, much, more!

RD staff will present information on Rural Development's Guaranteed, Loan, and Grant programs for municipalities, non-profits, businesses, and people looking to purchase or repair homes.

Space is limited so please RSVP to Rosemary Saunders at 802-254-9766 x108
Or
E-mail rosemary.saunders@vt.usda.gov
By May 1, 2006

Note: The IIsley Public Library is handicap accessible, however, if you require a special accommodation, please let us know.

USDA Rural Development

Committed to the future of rural communities.

"Rural Development Financial Assistance programs for you and your community"

May 9, 2006
10:00 AM to 12 Noon
IIsley Library 75 Main Street, Middlebury, VT

Agenda

10:00   Registration and refreshments

10:15   Welcome from USDA Rural Development
         State Director, Jolinda LaClair

10:20   Program Presentations and Information:

- Community Programs
- Single Family Housing
- Business Programs

11:45   Closing questions and comments

Directions: From the South take route 7 north to Middlebury, VT. Library is located at 75 Main Street. Telephone number 802-388-4095.
         From the North take route 7 South to Middlebury, VT. Library is located at 75 Main Street. Telephone number 802-388-4095.

Parking: Parking is in the rear of the library. Turn at convenience store to access municipal lot. The lower lot is recommended to accommodate the necessary time for the meeting.

NOTE: Entrance to Conference Room in Rear of Building